Venice, Nov. 14. On the 10th Inſtant the Great Council met, and choſe Sig. Vicenzo Gradinigo Procurator of St. Mark, on his advancing the uſual Sum of 25000 Crowns to be employed in the War againſt the Turks. A Convoy, with Stores of Proviſions, is getting ready to be ſent ſpeedily to Corfu. By a Ship from Spalato we learn, that Sig. Angelo Emo, Proveditore of Dalmatia, is at Cattaro; and that our Morlacks make frequent Incurſions into the Country belonging to the Turks, and bring off great Booty. This Week arrived an Engliſh Ship from the Levant, by which we have an Account that the Fleet of Men of War of this Republick is in the Archipelago, and the Gallies at St. Mauro. Letters from Rome of the 7th Inſtant relate, that the Spaniſh Biſhop of Oviedo, who has been ſome Time a Priſoner in the Caſtle of St. Angelo, having upon Examination profeſſed the Opinions of Molinos the Quietiſt, and perſiſting obſtinately therein, is condemned to forfeit all his Eſtate and Effects, and to be impriſoned during his Life in the Gaol of the Inquiſition. The Prince of Roſſano had reſolved to raiſe a Regiment at his own Expence, to give the Command of it to his Eldeſt Son, and to ſend him with it into the Emperour's Service. By this means he propoſes to obtain his Imperial Majeſty's Favour, and to be reſtored to his Eſtates of Sulmona and Roſſano in the Kingdom of Naples. Two of the youngeſt Sons of the Elector of Bavaria, are ſhortly expected at Rome, in order to be educated like Eccleſiaſticks, the better to qualify them for Preferments and Dignities in the Church; one of them is already Biſhop of Ratisbone. The Abbot Scarlati, Agent of the Houſe of Bavaria, had given Direction for the Palace to be fitted up for them, which their Brother the Electoral Prince lived in during his Stay at Rome.

Vienna, Nov. 14. Orders have been ſent from this Court to the Regency at Milan, to ſupply with Money, and give Paſſports to all the Spaniſh Officers there, who are willing to come and ſerve in Hungary, and to aſſure them that they ſhall be provided for ſuitably to their former Services and Stations. Prince Eugene of Savoy arriving at Raab in his Way hither from Temeſwaer, was complimented there, in the Pope's Name, by the Abbot Raſponi, who delivered to him, with the Ceremony uſed on ſuch an Occaſion, the Preſents ſent him by the Pope. On the 11th his Highneſs arrived here, was received with the greateſt Marks of Favour by His Imperial Majeſty, and has ſince been complimented by all Perſons of Diſtinction at this Court, on his Return from ſo glorious a Campaign. Councils of War have been held with him, as well at the Imperial Palace, as at his Highneſs's own Houſe, in order to the taking effectual Meaſures for opening the Campaign early the next Spring, by ſome Enterprize of Importance: In the mean Time the new Levies already begun in this City and Neighbourhood, for recruiting the Imperial Troops, are carried on with extraordinary Succeſs; and Stores of Proviſions and Ammunition are providing with the utmoſt Diligence, that nothing may be wanting when the Seaſon comes for Action. The Princeſs of Wallachia, Widow of Stephen Cantacuzeno, who was put to Death at Conſtantinople, is arrived here with her two Sons, Rudolphus and Conſtantine. The Prince Don Emanuel of Portugal, who in his Return from Temeſwaer ſtopt to view the Towns of Presbourg and Buda, is daily expected here. The Cardinal of Saxe-Zeitz is preparing to ſet out for Ratisbone, there to reſide in the Quality of his Imperial Majeſty's firſt Commiſſioner with the Dyet.

Berlin, Nov. 21. On the 16th Inſtant the King of Pruſſia arrived here from Wuſterhauſen; on the 18th his Majeſty received Advice, that the Czar will not arrive at Havelberg till to Morrow, and has therefore put off his Journey thither to the ſame Time. But two of his Majeſty's Miniſters, Count Denhof and M. Printz, were gone before this News came. M. Kniphauſen, who is come from Copenhagen to give the King an Account of what lately paſſed there, and Major-General Meyer, the Daniſh Envoy, who is alſo newly come from Copenhagen, are to follow his Majeſty to Havelberg, as are alſo the Ruſſian and Poliſh Envoys. On the 17th arrived here M. Schunck, who negociated the Marriage between the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg and the Princeſs of Schwedt: This Evening that Prince arrived here, and was received with a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon on the Walls. Letters from Warſaw of the 13th Inſtant ſay, the Treaty of Accomodation had at laſt been fully agreed and ſigned on the 8th, and ſent to the Marſhals of the Confederacy by the Staroſts of Belsk and Wlodomirs, who though they were returned without the Ratification in Form, had given Aſſurances that it would certainly follow in two or three Days; and the General Marſhal Leduchowski himſelf was expected at Warſaw by the 17th. As the Confederates inſiſted on the intire Evacuation of the Saxon and Muſcovite Troops, the King's Plenipotentiaries engaged for the firſt, and to uſe effectual Endeavours with the others, who were advanced under General Ronne as far as Dubno, as General Bauer was on the other ſide to Mezeritz.

Copenhagen, Nov. 21. Three Battallions of the Troops of Jutland, the Regiment of Fuhnen, Fuhnen, that of Laland, and the Battallion of Norwegians, are appointed to be forthwith transported to Norway; as is alſo the Regiment of Horſe of Lectzau, but their Horſes are to be left behind here, and they are to be provided in that Country with Horſes more fit for the Service there. Major-General Meſting is to have the Command of this Reinforcement, which will amount to between 4 and 5000 Men; and the Tranſports which carry them are to have for their Convoy two Men of War commanded by Commadore Tordenſhild. The ſaid Regiments are new cloathed, and a conſiderable Quantity of Powder, with 1000 Saddles, and ſeveral Thouſand Muſquets, Carbines and Piſtols, will be ſent with them. Orders are ſent for putting ſtrong Garriſons into Frederickſhall and Frederickſtadt, it being expected the Swedes will make ſome Attempt on that Side this Winter, unleſs they are prevented by great Rains, or deep Snows. For the Security of the Commerce between this City and Lubeck, three Men of War are appointed to cruiſe near Meun, under the Command of Commadore Shindel. 95 Ships newly arrived from Petersbourg, with Stores of all Kinds for the Czar's Service, are, by his Order, unlading, and their Cargoes are to be laid up in the Magazines which his Czariſh Majeſty has cauſed to be erected here. On the 15th Inſtant Sir John Norris, with the Britiſh Trade under his Convoy, ſailed from hence with a very fair Wind.

Admiralty-Office, Nov. 19. By Letters from Rear-Admiral Cornwall, dated at Gibraltar the 20th of laſt Month, we have Advice, That our Cruizers had met with, and forced aſhore near Marmora, a Ship from Newfoundland which had been taken by one of the Rovers of Salley; where ſhe was loſt with moſt of the Moors who were in her.
